The China Syndrome

Jane Fonda
Jack Lemmon
Michael Douglas

Fact and fiction merge in this gripping, suspenseful, nightmare account of the potential for catastrophe in a faulty nuclear plant. Jane Fonda (Oscar for Coming Home) and Michael Douglas are the TV news team stumbling onto danger; and Jack Lemmon, the key official with some tough decisions to make. "An on-the-edge-of-your-seat thriller" (Houston Chronicle) Adult Language. (PG-2:03)

The Magic of Lassie

James Stewart

The world's most famous canine makes a dramatic return to the screen in her first feature in more than a quarter century. James Stewart, Mickey Rooney, Alice Faye and Pernell Roberts join America's favorite collie. The Siertman Brothers, who composed the songs for Mary Poppins, have written 12 brand-new tunes. (G-1:39) Dec. 1, 6

Walt Disney's

Herbie

Rides Again

That lovable little car with a mind of its own is back. Herbie, VW star of The Love Bug, thinks, flies through the air—even races up and down San Francisco hills. Helen Hayes is the nice lady living in a seedy firehouse whom Herbie tries to help. "Grade-A Disney delight!" (Christian Science Monitor) Family fare. (G-1:37) Dec. 5, 11, 24

© Walt Disney Productions

Emmet Otter's Jug-Band Christmas

From the Creators
of the Muppets

Jim Henson created an all-new cast of Muppet characters for this captivating, award-winning Christmas story which returns to HBO. A warm-hearted tale of love, generosity and loyalty, as Emmet and his mother compete against a band of toughs in a local talent contest. Charming entertainment for the family holiday season. Dec. 5, 10, 13, 16, 19, 22, 23

Slow Dancing in the Big City

A struggling ballerina falls in love with a tough big-city newsman in a tender love story. Paul Sorvino and Anne Ditchburn co-star in this romantic film directed by John G. Avildsen (Rocky). Mild profanity. (PG-13) Dec. 4, 9, 14, 18

Inside the NFL

As the season builds to an exciting climax and play-off action begins, fans get the best of the week's big plays—every week—in this HBO series. Plus expert analyses by former champs Nick Buoniconti and Len Dawson. Dec. 6, 7, 13, 14, 20, 21, 27, 28

It Lives Again

This chiller of genes gone wrong and murder at the hands of infants is the shocking sequel to It's Alive. Expert lighting and sound, ingenious effects and brilliant music help build the horror. Profanity; violence; gore. (R-13) Dec. 3, 7, 16, 19, 22

Come along and meet Wonderwoman Lynda Carter, Olivia Newton-John and Gene Kelly on the set of Xanadu. HBO's roving eye focuses on glamorous personalities and insider happenings around the movie capital. Dec. 5, 9

Bo Svenson

Fred Williamson

Plenty of action in this rugged war-time drama shown on HBO for the first time in America! Bo Svenson (Final Chapter)—Walking Tall and pro football star Fred Williamson head the courageous Allied prisoners who escape and head for Switzerland. Profanity, war-type violence. (1:33) Dec. 8, 12, 16, 20, 28

TIME WAS...THE THIRTIES

The second of HBO's nostalgic, entertaining and exclusive six-part series focuses on a decade that began in national depression and moved to national "escape" as the entertainment industry captured America's energies. The '30s: radio in its heyday, Lou Gehrig at bat, Europe at war, and much of America on bread lines. Host Dick Cavett takes you back in time with classic newsreel footage, gangsters on and off-screen, jitterbugs, FDR, the New Deal. Dec. 10, 14, 19, 22, 30

Alice Doesn't Live Here Anymore

Ellen Burstyn won an Oscar as the attractive widow struggling to become her own person. Kris Kristofferson co-stars. Profanity, adult situations. (PG-1:40) Dec. 9, 15, 18

Harry Blackstone's Magical Tour

Watch closely and—presto!—magician Blackstone appears... and disappears, as do singers, dancers, an elephant, tiger, doves, canaries, pigeons and ducks. See Blackstone's entire lavish act on TV for the first time. Dec. 12, 16, 24

Looking for Mr. Goodbar

Diane Keaton reveals her acting versatility in this shocker. It pulls no punches in recounting a lonely woman's nightmarish journey through the singles bars and one-night stands. Profanity, strong sexual content, brutality. (R-2:16) Dec. 11, 15, 30

Uncle Joe Shannon

Bert Young (Rocky), a down-and-out trapeze act, and Doug McKeon, a 16-year-old with a bleak future, win against heavy odds. Adult language. (PG-1:48) Dec. 4, 8, 10

An Unmarried Woman

Jill Clayburgh
Alan Bates

She laughs, she cries, feels anger, guilt, loneliness. She makes love, makes breakfast, makes do. Jill Clayburgh, in her Oscar-nominee role, and Alan Bates co-star in this film nominated as Best Picture. Best Screenplay. Nudity, adult language. (R-2:04) Dec. 10, 14, 19, 27

Rich Little's "A Christmas Carol"

There's a multitude of Riches in this version of Dickens' classic Christmas story. Scrooge is a lot like "W.C. Fields," and "Paul Lynde" and "Edith Bunker" are the Cratchits, as a Christmas list of characters keep popping up—"Laurel and Hardy," "Richard Nixon," "Humphrey Bogart," "Jack Benny," "Johnny Carson" and more! It's all Little in this one-man showcase by the top impressionist in the country today.

A Little Romance Laurence Olivier

A warm tale of young love at that elusive moment between childhood and adult awareness. Two remarkable youngsters, American Diane Lane and French Thelouis Bernard, join Sir Laurence Olivier, a dapper Parisian pickpocket who can't resist a romantic conspiracy. Sally Kellerman and Arthur Hill are the girl's parents. "A magical quality like a modern fairy tale" (Rona Barrett) Some profanity. (PG-1:48) Dec. 23, 27, 31

The 5th Musketeer

Duels to the death, mistaken identity, court intrigue, lavish sets and costumes—an epic adventure in the swash-buckling tradition! Beau Bridges heads an all-star cast including Rex Harrison, Olivia de Havilland, Lloyd Bridges, Jose Ferrer. "As light entertainment its appeal is undeniable." (Chicago Tribune) Adult situations. (PG-1:43) Dec. 22, 24, 26, 29

EDDIE CANTOR

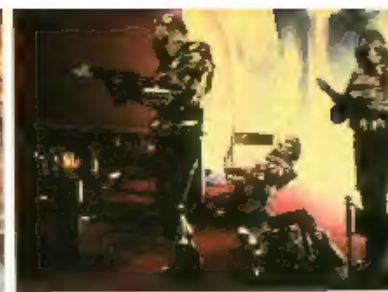

The Goldwyn Production of Ziegfeld's Broadway Smesh!

Comedian Eddie Cantor at his most hilarious in one of Hollywood's first color musicals! The famous Goldwyn Girls perform some of Busby Berkeley's earliest dance routines, forerunners of his spectaculars to come. This celebrated film has remained virtually unavailable for audiences for the past 50 years. It is as delightful today as it was half a century ago. Watch for a very young Betty Grable. (1:30) Dec. 24, 28, 30

Warlords of Atlantis

The lost kingdom of Atlantis springs to life on the ocean bottom. Prehistoric monsters still roam the land ruled by Cyd Charisse and Daniel Massey. Doug McClure's earthlings have some close encounters. Horror effects. (PG-1:36) Dec. 25, 29, 31

Battlestar Galactica

A space ship more than a mile long carries a destroyed planet's only survivors to a safe haven on planet Earth. Lorne Greene is at the helm in this theatrical film version of the great sci-fi adventure. Adult situations. (PG-2:05) Dec. 26, 30

Good Guys Wear Black

Secret negotiations, dirty tricks, State Department cover-ups and a politically inspired murder plot are key elements in this action-adventure film. As a betrayed Vietnam veteran, Chuck Norris, six-time undefeated world middleweight karate champion, displays the charm, talent and physical agility that made him the idol of martial arts fans. Anne Archer and Dana Andrews are also in the cast. "Abundant action... stunts are superior." (Variety) Violence, adult language. (PG-136) Dec. 28

Winter Kills

Jeff Bridges

A mysterious, exciting and altogether fascinating suspense yarn about the true powers controlling America—and how far they will go to keep that power. The story may remind you of a famous American political clan. Jeff Bridges, John Huston, Anthony Perkins, Richard Boone, Eli Wallach.

Sterling Hayden, Dorothy Malone and beautiful Belinda Bauer head a stellar cast.

"Fast and handsome and entertaining... crazy vitality" (N.Y. Times) Adult situations and language, violence. (R-137) Dec. 30
